13 U.S. Patents and Applications from MassMutual Designed for Intelligent Display for Moving Vehicles Available on the Ocean Tomo Bid-Ask™ Market

Ocean Tomo Bid-Ask™ Market announces the auction of 13 specific intelligent display patents and applications for moving vehicles from MassMutual.

Chicago, IL (September 03, 2020) Ocean Tomo Transactions, LLC will auction a portfolio of 13 patents and patent applications for unique methods and systems of Intelligent Displays in Moving Vehicles from MassMutual. Ocean Tomo Bid-Ask™ Market, auction lot 119, offered by MassMutual provides for systems and methods to modify the electronic display of a vehicle or electronic devices within the vehicle, when the vehicle is moving faster than a predetermined threshold and if the driver's eye gaze is directed toward an electronic device instead of the road. The methods and system embodied in this portfolio can also detect if the vehicle is involved in an accident and notify first responders.

While all patent and application rights are currently held by MassMutual, this portfolio is specifically beneficial for automotive manufacturers, display system manufacturers, advertisers, and first responders.

To request bidder credentials or further information on this auction or other portfolios on the Ocean Tomo Bid-Ask™ Market, contact Olivia Becker at oliviabecker@oceantomo.com or +1 747 277 9337.
